ECPW RETURNS TO CORTLAND

Cortland, NY – ECPW Empire State returns to the JM McDonald Sports Complex in Cortland, NY on March 21st with our first EVER TV Taping. ECPW Empire State will start taping TV that night and our shows will be different from the events seen in NJ with different talent and match-ups.

On the card:

Kage will team up with a former WWE legend to take on his arch-rivals the ECPW Empire State Champion IB Green & Big Poppa Chill. This issue has been brewing for months and is set to explode in our first TV main event.

Kage, who was eyelashes away from winning the title in his hometown, is looking for redemption and has found a former WWE Superstar to watch his back. There's no telling who it could be, the only way to find out is by joining us in Cortland on March 21st.

editors note Jimmy "Superfly" has answered the call and will appear in Cortland alongside Kage for this heated tag team main event. Fresh off a confrontation with Chris Jericho on WWE Monday Night Raw, Snuka is coming to Cortland with a vengeance and looking to help Kage secure a title match with Green May 8th Binghamton.

Anarchy, fresh off a win in Binghamton against Prince Akkanatan will take on another brash youngster Dave the Wave. Wave, like Prince think Anarchy is a disgrace and he is coming to Cortland to make an example out of him. Anarchy made good on his promise by injuring and beating Akkanatan in Binghamton. Now, on a roll, Anarchy plans to continue his road to success by stepping over the Wave and riding it all the way to the top of the mountain. Andrew Anderson will take on the Peacemaker in a re-match from their extremely physical bout in Binghamton on February 21st.

The Peacemaker insists that Anderson cheated in his victory and that in Cortland he's going to show Anderson who the law of the ring really is. Throw out the rule book, this one will be fought under PRISION YARD rules. Anderson, who is known to get hardcore when the situation calls for it, says he will leave a lasting impression on the Cortland fans and the Peacemaker will regret making the challenge

In other matches:

Jay Santana & Gunner Trash vs. The Army of Darkness

ECW Original HC Loc will take on the youngster Bo Davis

-Loc is unhappy about being put in such a low-profile match that he has vowed to take it out on Davis, the fans, and a prominent member of ECPW roster. There's no telling exactly why Loc is upset, hopefully we will find out more on March 21st.

Bandido Jr. vs. Kreptic Keegan vs. Nick Napoleon in the first ever ECPW Empire State cruiserweight match; ECPW Empire State is looking to get back to good, high-flying intense action that will leave the fans asking for and wanting more. This match will set the bar and tone for this new division, the fans in Cortland won't be disappointed with this one.

Plus two more exciting bouts, including a 15-man over-the-top battle royal featuring the new stars of ECPW Empire State.

Music will be provided throughout the night by such great local artists as Flatline Entertainment, Scarred Theory, and Lethal Dose. Don't miss these great performances as our TV cameras will be rolling throughout the whole event.

Tickets are $12 in advance, $15 at the door.

Doors open at 7pm, the show will start around 7:45pm.

Tickets are available at the following locations:

The JM McDonald Sports Complex (607-753-8100)
